the documents' release means that transcripts of all previously private hearings should be available to the public, though they may include redactions.

you refer. as you will see if you re-read what i actually wrote, i was referring to saline solution which

and the information on them is very limited, need advice quick